Confused about how men think and parent the way they do? You're not alone!

This seven- week workshop will explore the differences in the ways moms and dads think and parent. It will also give moms the opportunity to reflect on their own experiences that have influenced their parenting styles. Join this workshop and learn how to create a winning team for your children. Connect and learn from other moms in Illinois. If you're a mom or female caregiver, this workshop is for you!

It's easy to register. Click HERE or scan the QR code with your phone!
You must register in advance to receive the login and passcode information.

This workshop is led by Ernestine Brown, regional coordinator for Children's Home & Aid's Parents Care & Share program. Ernestine is dedicated to making parents strong and developing parents as leaders. Besides being an energetic advocate for fathers, Ernestine has combated human trafficking in the Chicago area for many years. As a single parent herself, Ernestine built a strong, winning team with her child's father.
